

Healing Wishes

We do not question why some must endure
Though their spirits are kind and their hearts may be pure
These souls suffer setbacks of heart or disease
And we ask that their plight can somehow be eased

Be they stranger, a foe or a dearly held friend
We ask that their suffering be brought to an end
That the healing of spirit can visit their cases
Bringing peaceful tranquillity back to their faces

For they cannot have earned what fate has bestowed
And we're asking sincerely please lighten their load
Share out the burden if a price must be paid
We'd each take our piece with no moment's delay

Let their souls be restored and whatever is due
Be shared by the many, not borne by the few
We're blessed with the strength of our faith and belief
That you have the power of distress or relief

So, we raise up our voices in humble request
(Though You must decide what suits Your needs best)
Send goodness and mercy where now it's most needed
And grant us a sign that our prayer has been heeded.
